Blakely Rotary recognized at district conference

The Blakely Rotary Club was recognized at the District Rotary Conference last week at Jekyll Island for their work and support of the 2008-2009 Rotary theme, "Making Dreams Real."

The club was recognized for their "Service Above Self" throughout the community and world.

The Rotary International President's Citation and the District Governor's Citation were awarded in recognition of the club's membership, literacy, clean water, health and hunger projects.

The District Literacy Award was received for the club's literacy service projects.

All articles, pictures, classified ads and display advertising are due each Friday by noon. Call 723-4376 or Fax: 723-6097 Email: ecnews@alltel.net
